

Hi-Vol Products, LLC, Announces the Partnership with TPC Sales, LLC, as Sales Representatives.

Livonia, Michigan, May 14, 2008 - Hi-Vol Products, LLC, today announced that they have joined into a partnership with TPC Sales, LLC.

TPC Sales, LLC, located in Auburn Hills, Mi, will support Hi-Vol as Sales Representatives for current and new growth markets.

Founded in 1995, TPC's group has vast knowledge and experience in the automotive and non-automotive markets. Some of the different markets they support include recreational vehicles, marine, heavy truck, medical, HVAC and the defense industry. They are known for their outstanding reputation for providing excellent customer service and support.

Hi-Vol Products is very pleased to have the TPC group supporting us. TPC Sales, LLC, definitely fit the mold of what the current customer wants in a support team. The experience, knowledge, and engineering background of the TPC sales team made this the right decision for Hi-Vol Products moving forward.
