

HI-VOL

PRODUCTS

A TriMas Company

Hi-Vol Products is recognized by General Motors Engineers for support given on the recent LAF GDI engine which was named one of Ward's top 10 engines.

Livonia, Michigan, April 2010 – Hi-Vol Products was visited by General Motors, and the Ward's Best Engine Trophy, this month and was thanked for their support on the new GDI 2.4L Ecotec I-4 LAF engine. This engine had received recognition from Ward's Automotive as being One of the top 10 engines.

Team Members (back row) Paul Carey, Eng Manager Hi-Vol, Adam Tocco, Millennium Ind, Mark Wrobel, GM, Randy Hinz, VP of Operations Hi-Vol, Steve Miller HAP, Chuck Taylor, HAP. (Front Row) Brent Wigginton Quality Manager Hi-Vol, Mike Stewart, GM

Hi-Vol Products started developing these Fuel System Components in 2008 with our customers. Currently in production, Hi-Vol Products is supplying over 100k pcs. weekly of these Stainless steel cold formed and precision machined components. When in full production, this product line could see requirements in excess of 200k pcs. weekly.

About Hi-Vol Products

Headquartered in Livonia, Michigan, Hi-Vol Products is a manufacturer of specialized cold-formed and precision-machined parts for multiple applications and industries.